5. Michael McNall, Resident Agent in Charge, ATF
Estimated Time: 30 minutes

RAC McNall will testify as a finder of the following firearm in defendant's bedroom pursuant to the search warrant of defendant's residence on February 16, 2016:

- Armscor of the Philippines pistol, model Charles Daly, .45 ACP (Count 1, No. 12)

RAC McNall will also testify to locating the Liberty Safe combination in both the defendant's vehicle and bedroom. He will testify to defendant's statements to ATF Agents at the conclusion of the search warrant of Robert Mahler's residence.

6. Jim Anglemier, Captain, Silverton Police Department

7. Constance Daggett, civilian witness
Estimated Time: 1 hour

Ms. Daggett was married to William Daggett at the time defendant stored his firearms and ammunition at her residence. She will testify that she discovered defendant had a criminal history and called the police on January 16, 2016, to report that she believed defendant was illegally hiding his firearms and ammunition at her house. She will discuss her and her husband's relationship with defendant and her knowledge of defendant's ownership of firearms and ammunition.

8. William Daggett, civilian witness

Estimated Time: 1 hour

William Daggett will testify that he was very familiar with defendant's ownership of firearms and ammunition. He will explain that he believed defendant was a competitive shooter and had previously owned a gun shop. William did not know defendant was a convicted felon when he allowed defendant to store lockboxes, numerous firearms, and ammunition at his residence in Molalla, Oregon. Defendant gave William various excuses such as defendant's wife's disapproval of the guns, as the reason why defendant could not store the firearms and ammunition at his own residence. William will explain that defendant gave him $5000 cash, and asked him as a favor, if he could pick up a cashier's check and send it out to finalize a bulk purchase of ammunition for defendant to store at William's house. Defendant told William he was busy and could not go with him to the bank. The ammunition was delivered to the Daggett's business and William was surprised to find out defendant had used William's name and address as the purchaser on the invoice form. The document did not have any information that indicated it was actually the defendant who had ordered and purchased the ammunition.

9. Curtis Allen Jr., civilian witness

Estimated Time: 30 minutes

Curtis Allen will testify that he knew defendant to be an owner and possessor of firearms and ammunition. Mr. Allen will provide information regarding his private sale of a firearm to defendant several years ago. Mr. Allen will explain that defendant did not put his own name on the informal bill of sale, but put his brother's name "Alex Mahler" stating he was buying the gun for his brother.

10. Alexander Mahler, civilian witness

Estimated Time: 30 minutes

Alexander Mahler is defendant's brother, and will testify that his own firearm was missing after defendant stayed at his residence in Fayetteville, Arkansas.

11. Karl Deering, Latent Print Examiner

Estimated Time: 30 minutes

Mr. Deering is a latent print examiner for the Oregon State Police Forensic Laboratory and he will talk about his forensic analyses of the firearms evidence seized during this investigation. Further details regarding Mr. Deering's testimony is provided in government's separate notice of expert witnesses.

The government respectfully reserves the right to call such additional witnesses as may be necessary during its case-in-chief or in rebuttal.

DATED this 24th day of August 2018.

Respectfully submitted,

BILLY J. WILLIAMS
